Eligibility criteria for attending CMEx:

1. Youth applicants must be between ages 15 and 21 and submit a 200 word statement describing what he/she expects to contribute to and gain from CMEx.
2. Successful scholarship applicants agree to make a US$250 CMEx Contribution to help offset various conference expenses. (Residents of host country and fellowship recipients are exempted from contributions).

For US Taxpayers:

1. You can deduct your contributions to charitable (nonprofit) organizations like CMEx only if you itemize your deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040)
Note: You must have a receipt from the charity or a bank record for all charitable cash donations to claim a deduction on your tax return.
2. If you do itemize and give to a qualified charity, you can deduct cash donations and donated property, but you can't deduct the value of your time or service spent on charitable work. However, you can deduct your out-of-pocket costs for transportation, meals, boarding, etc.
3. The deduction for charitable contributions is limited to 50% of your adjusted gross income (AGI).

Scholarships cover airfare, accommodation and registration, while Fellowships cover accommodation and registration.

Applications and accompanying stories are acceptable in English, Spanish, French and Dutch.

Space is limited
